San Diego, CA (July 31, 2019) - The American Heart Association is excited to announce that the Kewaunee Heart Clinic is the only center in the US to be certified in the American Heart Association’s HeartSAFE® Program. The Association is truly proud of this accomplishment, which illustrates the ongoing dedication of the Kewaunee Clinic to its patients. “HeartSAFE® was designed to improve patient, provider and staff safety at heart-related events and activities by helping clinics manage scenarios that can result in harm to patients. To earn accreditation, the Kewaunee Clinic has been carefully reviewing its heart procedures, volunteering at hospital-associated educational sessions, and testing a number of its procedures,” says Amy Jager, MD, Director of the Kewaunee Clinic. “With a total score of 912 of a possible 1000, our certified HeartSAFE® Program embodies many of our value-based patients-centered and community-focused priorities, including being open-access and open house, meeting the standards set forth by our other certifications by collaborating more closely with the Joslin Diabetes Center or the Center for Urinary Incontinence, and providing coverage for all HRSA designated rural areas in which we practice or service as required by law,” says Jager.

“HeartSAFE® is required to be certified every two years. We updated it this past year to reflect our goal of certifying patients and procedures to share with our community. Our Kewaunee cardiologist, Dr. Mindy Lewis, noted that the patients as well as our clinic staff were proud of this achievement.”

Throughout its 30 year history, the Kewaunee Heart Clinic has received favorable reception and recognition from the public for providing quality and access for its patients. “We are extremely proud of our accredited HeartSAFE® Program. Our Center represents the best and most dedicated healthcare providers in Wisconsin.” says Kewaunee Heart Clinic President, and founder Michael Lanke. Lanke also noted that the HeartSAFE® program helped ensure that the clinic would be prepared for any and all circumstances that might arise. “We have been impressed with Kewaunee Heart Clinic’s consistent commitment to patient safety and we fully support
