January 2, 1993 - Kapla Selekt Sejarah Gereja, Jakarta Gunung Mulia, 1993, 127 pp. ... International trade routes stretching from Southeast Asia to Europe. On the other hand, from the Far East to Europe. At the end of the 19th century, this system was destroyed, and trade between Asia and Europe, which was previously very profitable, was threatened. Thanks to the efforts and experience gained in the course of studying the history of this trade, the author was able to revise this process and identify the main problems that arose in trade between Asia and Europe. These problems are, in essence, the problems that arise when integrating the new economy into the world economy.
